Our faith, as St. Paul tells the Corinthians, rests on the reality of Jesus' Resurrection. We base everything on the truth of the story. But establishing that truth is not a matter of science, history or archaeology. It's a matter of faith. We must call upon the Holy Spirit who is present to the Church, to assist us.

In the Easter Gospels, we hear the witness of the first followers of Jesus: Jesus was risen; they had experienced him alive in their midst. Their testimony in the Spirit moves us to a faith-filled "Alleluia."

Our Easter Gospel is a story of living faith in which we are participants, and to which we are now witnesses.

Fr. Greg Friedman, O.F.M.

Easter Message

*If Jesus rose from the tomb,
He has conquered death.
And if He has power over death,
He can raise us to eternal life
with Him.
In other words, if we celebrate Easter Sunday,
we celebrate that our death is just the beginning of happiness forever with God.
Therefore, we don't need to grieve
like those without hope.*
